HOST INSTRUCTIONS

Thank you for purchasing a My Mystery Party murder mystery game. Read these host instructions thoroughly to get ready for your big day.

GENERAL HOSTING: during the party, your job as the host is to make sure the rounds flow correctly. As the host, you may choose to play any character you wish. You will pass out the clue cards to the guests at the appropriate times. As the mystery progresses, check on your guests to see if they are discussing the clues and implementing tasks on their clue cards (some players may have tasks). Encourage them to mingle with the other players, and not to rush anything. It's all about gossiping and sharing secrets! They should speak to every other player at least once during each round. Your guests are playing a character role, so they should embrace their character's lack of integrity and motives. With that said, if you opt to do the optional money challenge, you can instruct the guests to hold back secrets for money (see the bonus activity instructions in this booklet for more details).

There are full instructions in the purchased game

DÉCOR: The party area is supposed to be the Dawson family's new home at 614 Scarlet Ct. Optional: make a street sign to put in front of your home out of cardboard and PVC pipe for a fun effect. Optional: make a DVD of pictures of your guests to play like a slideshow during your party on the television / projector screen (if there is one in the room). Because the game setting is in the family room / living room of the Dawson family's new home, any general party area is suitable. You can make this as elaborate as you wish by creating an authentic 'entrance' to your home with a sign that says 'Welcome to the Dawson Family's Home' or simply decorate the room as if you are having any type of party with balloons, etc. The Pinterest board with fun DIY suggestions for your game is: <https://goo.gl/qyudwU>

GAME STRUCTURE: the game is organized into four rounds and is structured as follows:

OPTIONAL PRE-GAME STARTER: these optional pre-game tasks are to be delivered to each guest before the party, or give them to the guests as they arrive. All pre-game materials are optional. They are intended to enhance the build up for the event. These tasks are not vital to solving the mystery. Also, encourage your guests to view the Your Mystery Party guest pre-game website to get them excited about your game (this is highly encouraged). The direct link for your game can be found on the additional information sheet in your kit.

ROUND ONE: Deliver the round one clue card envelopes as your guests arrive. It is optional to serve cocktails for adults and appetizers.

ROUND TWO: Deliver the round two clue card envelopes. It is optional to break for dinner either before or after this round.

SOLUTION ROUND THREE: Deliver the round three solutions. It is optional to serve coffee/hot cocoa and dessert.

Don't host a party without some type of food/beverage offering - hungry guests are not happy guests.

EXAMPLE TIMELINE

7:00 PM: Guests arrive. Take guest photos and serve refreshments. Have the invited guest list available for the guests to view as they trickle into the party. Once everybody has arrived, snap a group photo!

7:10 PM: The host goes over the guest instructions for the mystery game. It is optional to have each character stand up and introduce themselves to the group. You can play the game trailer video for an introduction.

7:20 PM: The round one clue cards are handed out, and the game begins. The guests mingle and discuss the clues on their clue cards. Motives will start to unfold during this round.

7:50 PM: An optional bonus game is played.

8:05 PM: An optional dinner is served. Snacks can be served throughout the party instead.

8:35 PM: The round two envelopes are handed out, and the guests mingle about with their pre-murder clues.

9:00 PM: The victim is revealed, and the investigation of the crime begins. The mystery investigation sheets are handed out, and the guests interrogate each other (using the post-murder clues). Each guest should interview every player in the game.

9:15 PM: The forensic report is revealed.

9:30 PM: The investigation sheets (guesses of whodunit) are turned in to the host. After the sheets are collected, the guests may take turns accusing who they believe did it.

9:45 PM: Dessert and coffee may be served at this time. The round three solutions are handed out to the guests. Each player presents their solution, and the murderer confesses at the end. Allow a few minutes for the guests to mingle at the end to discuss the mystery.

10:00 PM: Another optional bonus game may be played &/or host an optional awards ceremony!

To shorten the mystery party, omit the bonus games, don't stop for dinner, omit the accusation round, and don't host an awards ceremony. Also, you can shorten the game even further by only having the required players read their solutions (or even just the murderer). If you wish to extend the length of the party, add more bonus games!

ROUND ONE CLUES – Cut the cards out below and slip them into envelopes.

Each player has a round one card in the purchased game.

Names removed to minimize spoilers.

Character L– ROUND ONE

CLUES TO REVEAL DURING THIS ROUND

-  Your dad runs the town of Shady Oaks and there is nothing anybody can do about it. He is the C.E.O. of the only industry in town (Bonlin Pharmaceuticals) that employs over half of the people in town. If they want to keep their job, they will do what your father says to do. You are nearly as powerful as your father.
-  Ask around to see what others think of your father, J.R. Sage. If they say anything negative, throw a fit.
-  Tell Character B you know what she is doing, and she is playing a very dangerous game.

PERSONAL CLUES TO CONCEAL

-  Character P is blackmailing your father. You need to protect the family name at all costs. Your father will get one of his minions to harm him/her if s/he doesn't knock it off. Your father has no morals.
-  Your character is an ex-high school bully. You got into a severe car accident in high school and it ruined your athletic career. You are still recovering. Your father gave you a job as a junior chemist at Bonlin Pharmaceuticals – even though you didn't have any education or experience in chemistry. He is making others teach you what you need to know, and this makes the other employees have very hard feelings against you. You don't care.
-  Your father requires his employees to pay him secretly, off the books, to keep their jobs. They either pay him or they are fired. They don't have a choice.

ROUND 2 CLUES – cut out, slip into envelopes and label with the character and round. ✂

Character B ROUND TWO

Pre-Murder Clues

- ✂ Ask Character L if it is true that he has been to prison. If he has, speak to the townspeople about how they feel about a known murderer living among them.
- ✂ Ask Character X about her sudden career change from homemaker to an interior designer. You'd like to know if this is something she has been considering or was this a quick decision?
- ✂ Speak to Character C about her avid animal rights campaign against those that use and wear furs and eat meat. Has she harmed anyone that, in her opinion, mistreats animals by using their fur and eating them?
- ✂ Keep an eye on Character H, as something strange is going on with him.
- ✂ You and your crew work out routinely, as you never know what you'll be asked to do with your job.

Post-murder Evidence & Alibi (Blood Type O+)

- ✂ You should put together a timeline to see where everybody was prior to the murder.
- ✂ Sometime prior to the victim being discovered, Character L left the party room and was gone for about 3 minutes.
- ✂ At a crime scene, there could be more than one blood type discovered. If this is the case here, the second blood type that doesn't match the victim might belong to the murderer.
- ✂ You left the party area frequently throughout the evening. You were trying to get a scoop for a story.
- ✂ You don't think you touched the weapon.

Each player has a round two card in the purchased game.

Names removed to minimize spoilers.

ROUND 3 SOLUTIONS – cut out, slip into envelopes and label with the character and round.

Character I

READ WHEN YOU ARE TOLD IT IS YOUR TURN.

When it is your turn, say the following:

Character I for mayor of Shady Oaks!
Now that the victim is gone, I won't have any wretched souls campaigning against me when I run for office next May!
However, I didn't murder anybody! I'm an ex-chocolatier! I put love into people's souls, not kill them.

The following characters are to read their solutions next in this order: (Skip over characters that are not present).

CHARACTER O, CHARACTER W, CHARACTER Q,
CHARACTER P, CHARACTER E

Each player has a round three card in the purchased game.

Names removed to minimize spoilers.
