Expandable Teams: This game has two expandable players in the main game file. This means specified players (Tele N. Ewe, Jamie Bond) are designed to have an optional team with them during the game. It's as if you were invited to a party and decided to bring along your friends/colleagues. What would you speak to the other guests about if you attended a party with your friend? You'd have the mutual acquaintance in common, so that's what you'd talk about!

In other words, if the character is a secret agent, such as Jamie Bond, they can have a team of up to ~15-20 colleagues (i.e. secret agents) with them. The team's cards will have the information/clues of Jamie Bond, and that is what they use to play with in the game - they all have the same mission and back story. The expandable players all have duplicate cards, but are in the game just like everybody else otherwise. This is a great way to host large events and still give everyone a role in the game. If you are hosting a party for 100-200 people, you would not want 100-200 story lines to sift through once the mystery occurs. That's a nightmare. This enables you to grow your guest list without adding chaos to your game.

Here's the breakdown of how to host a large game (see character lists below for details):

- 18 unique players from the main game.
- 5 unique players from expansion pack #1 (purchased separately)
- Up to 15 duplicate Federal Agents led by Jamie Bond, Main Game.
- Up to 15 duplicate Reporters led by Tele N. Ewe, Main Game.
- Up to 15 duplicate Entourage Members led by Jon Volta, Expansion Pack #1 (purchased separately).
- Up to 15 duplicate Henselman Family Members, Expansion Pack #1 (purchased separately).
- Up to 15 duplicate Bodyguards led by Malev O. Lent, Expansion Pack #1 (purchased separately).
- Up to 15 duplicate Sous Chefs, led by Ramsey Gordon, Expansion Pack #1 (purchased separately).
- Up to 15 duplicate Anonville Historical Society Members, Expansion Pack #1 (purchased separately).
- Up to 15 duplicate Anonville Police Officers, Expansion Pack #1 (purchased separately).

TOTAL PLAYERS: 24 unique player roles and 120 expandable team players when the expansion pack is purchased = 144+ on your guest list.

There's a + there because you can add more than 15 on each team if needed.
