INVITED GUESTS

TAYLOR HOLMES

London, England

If you had to choose one word to describe Taylor Holmes it would be genius. Taylor is the director of the crime lab of the Metropolitan Police Service in London, England. Taylor is highly respected in the U.K. as a criminal investigator, and is an international leader in biochemical forensic research!

Suggested attire: lab coat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc.

CRICK WATSON

Sydney, Australia

Crick Watson is the crabby trace evidence analyst from Sydney Australia. Brilliant-minded but lacking social skills, this microscope-wielding lab tech is the one to go to if you need a hair, fiber or paint chip analyzed!

Suggested attire: more traditional detective attire - i.e. a Sherlock Holmes costume.

CAT WILLOWS

Las Vegas, U.S.

Cat Willows is the dependable trace evidence specialist from Las Vegas, Nevada. Known to suffer from obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), Cat checks test results two, three, or even four times! However, if Cat's analyzed the data - you know the analysis is correct.

Suggested attire: all black attire with a black jacket that says 'Forensics' or 'CSI' on it. You can make the letters out of construction paper and tape it to the back.

ALEX CHRISTIE

Los Angeles, U.S.

Alex Christie is the ultra-mysterious DNA analyst from Los Angeles, California. Even though Alex has been a crime scene investigator for over ten years, nobody truly knows the real Alex.

Suggested attire: trench coat and a fedora hat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc.

MAGNUS PI

Dallas, U.S.

The ultra-eccentric Magnus Pi is the talented questioned document examiner from Dallas, Texas. An international legend in handwriting and document analysis, this fraud-spotting CSI is the one you call to investigate crimes involving documents!

Suggested attire: lab coat, a cowboy hat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc.

JORDYN "J.J." GITES

Dublin, Ireland

Fingerprints anyone? Jordyn 'JJ' Gites is the world's preeminent fingerprint examiner. If a crime lab can't lift a fingerprint from a piece of evidence, it's sent to JJ who will find every last one! A nerdy perfectionist, J.J. is the expert on dusting prints...and how to cut a rug on the dance floor!

Suggested attire: light-colored suit and a makeup brush and baby powder in a small container (i.e. a fingerprint dusting kit).

SKY STOKES

Cape Town, South Africa

If you hear singing during a crime scene investigation, it's probably coming from the songbird known as Sky Stokes. Known to be quite paranoid, this firearm and tool mark analyst from Cape Town, South Africa is the one to be around if you want entertainment!

Suggested attire: all-black attire with a black jacket that says 'Forensics' or 'CSI' on it. You can make the letters out of construction paper and tape it to the back.

JAIME CLUSEAU

Ontario, Canada

Jaime Cluseau is the ill-mannered DNA analyst from Ontario, Canada. One of the brightest minds in the field of molecular biology, but difficult to work with in the lab. Jaime has developed a reputation for being problematic.

Suggested attire: more traditional detective attire - i.e. a Sherlock Holmes costume.

RYAN LANGLEY

New York, U.S.

Ryan Langley is the overly-sensitive entomologist from New York, New York. Ryan is the leading expert of forensic insect evidence. If you need an insect identified or to know how long it's been somewhere... Ryan Langley is who you ask! However, treat Ryan with the utmost respect, as Ryan can't take strong personalities.

Suggested attire: lab coat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc. An I NEW YORK button or t-shirt under the lab coat is an optional prop.

TEMPLAS SIMONE

Los Cabos, Mexico

The moody and insensitive Templas Simone is the world's renowned arson expert. It's rumored Templas can smell smoke from over a mile away and detects the cause of a fire by simply walking into an ashy room! Nevertheless, Templas is a challenging friend to have, as the mood swings are a real killer!

Suggested attire: lab coat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc.

SAGE SPADE

Bundenbach, Germany

Sage is the nosy German botanist and long-time member of the International Crime Scene Investigation Association. There is not a plant alive that Sage doesn't know every detail about, so Sage is definitely the one to go to for advice on a plant specimen or soil sample. Watch what you say around Sage Spade and take heed of this gossip, because your words will be on public record!

Suggested attire: lab coat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc. Optional props are any type of plant specimens that you can show your colleagues.

JADEN BRASS

Madrid, Spain

Jaden Brass is the Spanish rookie of the International Crime Scene Investigators Association. A part-time bullfighter specializing in latent fingerprints, this bluntly-honest CSI has been burning the midnight oil at the Madrid Criminal Investigation Laboratory. Rumor has it that Jaden is up for a big promotion already!

Suggested attire: lab coat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc.

GIOSETTE GRISSOM

Napoli, Italy

The ultra-spunky Italian, Giosette Grissom, is one of the greatest firearms and tool mark analysts this world has ever known. Giosette Grissom is also known for another awesome talent - mockery. Don't allow Giosette to stand behind you if you don't want an irritating shadow!

Suggested attire: lab coat and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc. Hair slicked straight back.

SIDNEY SIDLE

Washington D.C., U.S.

Sidney Sidle is the outgoing standup comic and DNA Analyst from Washington, D. C. Sid's a super friendly person on the surface, but don't cross this comic or you'll pay the price - possibly with your career! This lab analyst has friends in very high places and is no stranger to seeking revenge!

Suggested attire: dark-colored suit and any type of investigation tools - notepad, latex gloves, forceps, etc. Hair should be ultra-professional. A rubber chicken or any other 'joke/comedy' items as optional props.

DAKOTA TRACEY

Manchester, England

Dakota Tracey is a prim & proper poet in addition to being one of the most knowledgeable forensic scientists in the world. A biochemist by training, Dakota heads up the crime lab in Manchester, England - a famous post-graduate training facility. Dakota typically brings the trainees of the Manchester lab along with him/her to forensic science events, as it is part of their training.

Suggested attire: more traditional detective attire - i.e. a Sherlock Holmes costume.

MANCHESTER LAB PERSONNEL

Manchester, England

Dakota is hardly alone, as s/he typically brings the apprentices of the Manchester lab to forensic science events, as it is part of their training. They are a tight-knit group of dedicated forensic science trainees.

Suggested attire: more traditional detective attire - i.e. a Sherlock Holmes costume.
