HOST DIRECTIVES

Get ready for an awesome night of fun with your purchase of the Murder at the Plaza Ritz Hotel game from MyMysteryParty.com! This party is an intriguing mystery where the players act the roles of mysterious and bold personalities while sleuthing the intriguing story line. This is an excellent choice for your next corporate event for 50 to 150 people. *You can extend this with the expansion pack to over 200.

The story is set in the famous Plaza Ritz Hotel in 'any' city – we keep it vague so you can use your own city, if you'd like. The premise is the first ever Midas Awards banquet for Fordes Magazine – the top business magazine in the world. Ten CEOs from the largest corporations around the globe have been nominated and a lot is at stake, as they yearn for the glamour and glory of winning the prestigious Midas Award which will honor the year's top leader.

This party is best to be hosted in a large ballroom where you can set up ten tables – one for each nominee. You can, if needed, have more than one suspect per table, if you don't have 10 tables. If you have more than 10 tables, you'll need to purchase the expansion pack for this game to add more nominees (suspects). Or, you can simply have these additional guests as 'additional guests' of the event and they can mingle about with the CEOs and play along with everybody else – they just won't have a CEO leader at their table.

THE GAME IS ORGANIZED INTO THREE ROUNDS AND IS STRUCTURED AS FOLLOWS:

ROUND ONE: Deliver these clues as your guests arrive. You can serve appetizers and cocktails.

ROUND TWO: Deliver these clues after serving dinner (optional) to your guests.

SOLUTION ROUND THREE: Deliver these clues with coffee/hot cocoa and dessert (again, it's optional to serve dessert)

Note: you do NOT have to serve dinner/dessert, this is only suggested and the instructions tell you 'when' to serve it and what to do around the time you serve it. You can simply skip both without a problem and just serve appetizers the entire time. However, please don't have a party without offering some type of food—even if it's just appetizers.

EVENT TIME LINE

The game can be shortened by excluding the optional activities, not stopping for dinner. It can be lengthened by adding more bonus games and doing all optional activities.

- 7:00 PM Guests arrive, get a cocktail and appetizer and are seated at their tables.
- 7:15 PM It will take at least 15 minutes to get this many people situated. The host will read the guest instructions to the group when ready. It is best to have a microphone and a stage/podium.
- 7:30 PM Each table will elect a guest to play the role of the nominee (if you, as the host, haven't already done so).
- 7:40 PM The host will make the first announcement and then pass out the round one clue cards to each nominee and the individual tables will discuss the information with their nominee, study their nominee's dossier, and view the nominee list with the brief bios. The supporting players will discuss the clues with the other 9 other nominees and report the information back to their table. (Nominees remain at the table unless directed by their clue cards to perform a task.)
- 7:55 PM The host will make the announcement that the Midas Award will be announced shortly, so everybody should take their seat for dinner. If you are hosting a buffet, the host will instruct the guests to serve themselves at this time. This will conclude this round.
- 8:00 PM Guests enjoy dinner. Stopping for dinner is optional.
- 8:15 PM There is some flexibility here. You can start round two during dinner or wait until everybody is finished. We will assume you start it 15 minutes into dinner. At this time, make the announcement #2 that J.R. Fordes is dead, and pass out the investigation sheets, writing utensils and the round two clue cards to each nominee. While the guests finish dinner, they can discuss the murder, their nominee's clues, etc. When they are finished, they can start interrogating the other nominees.
- 8:30 PM Each table will receive a forensic investigation report and an official ballot to guess whodunit. The table must share the information they have gathered, discuss the case, and agree on one guilty party and then notify the host when they have made their guess.
- 8:40 PM The host will pick up the ballots as the tables submit their final guesses.
- 8:50 PM An optional team-building bonus activity is played (the host can say there is some down-time and due to the stress of the investigation, a party game will be played).
- 9:10 PM The round is concluded and each table picks a representative to accuse who their table believes did it, why and how. The accusations are optional and may be skipped.
- 9:25 PM The round three solution cards are handed to each nominee and each nominee will present their solution to the group in the order directed by the cards. If you are in a time crunch, you can have only the murderer present their solution.
- 9:45 PM An optional awards ceremony is played (the host will have to quickly choose the award winners While the players are accusing and presenting solutions. Although, many awards can be decided during the game.
- 10:00 PM The round is concluded.

NAMETAGS ✂ the player nametags are below. We suggest that you either print and place into plastic name badges (optional), laminate and punch a hole and use a lanyard to wear around the neck (optional) – or the most economical and trouble-free way is to adhere fabric-safe adhesive (i.e. double-sided Scotch tape) to the back once they are printed. *If you put them into name badges, you can purchase generic nominee ribbons to affix to the back of the name badge such as from Marco Promotional Products.

ROUND ONE CLUES

Cut out the clue cards and slip into envelopes and label with the character and round.

NAME REMOVED TO PREVENT SPOILERS - ROUND ONE

CLUES TO REVEAL DURING THIS ROUND

- J.R. Fordes is your cousin. You both lost your grandfather recently due to natural causes. The reading of the will is next Tuesday, but you already know you both have an even split of his estate...which is worth over 10 million dollars.
- You think it is inappropriate that J.R. Fordes put that letter of rejection in your dossier. It's true that you spent most of your interview time smearing Casey Scott – but you heard Casey was a top candidate, you were young, and you really wanted the VP of Content position. It was such a long time ago (in 1992), so what does this have to do with you being nominated for the Midas award?

PERSONAL CLUES TO CONCEAL

- At any time during this round, *This gives a task for the CEO | Nominee to perform – it's removed to prevent spoilers.
- You earn a nice salary as the CEO of XXremovedXX, Inc. However, you have a gambling problem and are in serious debt with some Las Vegas bookies who have mob connections. You need some cash, fast, or you might get your knees broken by henchmen...or worse. You owe over 10 million dollars.
- While you were in Dallas on a business trip about 6 weeks ago, you sat next to two people at a restaurant and overheard a conversation that Nestles Water (one of the biggest suppliers of bottled water in the U.S.) was about to be forced to shut down two of their main plants because of a coliform contamination (coliforms are bacteria that can cause illness). Someone is blackmailing you for 10 million dollars. You have email notes – just put them into your dossier. What is J.R.'s motive – to humiliate you or were you being blackmailed for information?
- You have no clue who is behind this. You are being blackmailed for information.

EACH NOMINEE WILL HAVE A CLUE CARD FOR ROUND ONE. THESE ARE DELIVERED TO EACH OF THE TEN TABLES AND SHARED WITH THE INDIVIDUAL GROUPS DURING EACH ROUND.

ROUND TWO CLUES

Cut out the clue cards, slip into envelopes and label with the character and round. ✂

DO NOT READ BELOW IF YOU DON'T WANT TO KNOW WHO THE VICTIM IS IN THE STORY. IN THIS GAME, IT IS NOT ONE OF THE INVITED GUESTS, HOWEVER.

NAME REMOVED TO PREVENT SPOILERS - ROUND TWO

'Character B' discovered the body on the floor in the foyer of the Black Shadow Ballroom with a chef's knife in his back. Gather clues and evidence from the suspects and submit your best guess of 'Who Stabbed J.R.'

CLUES TO REVEAL DURING THIS ROUND

- Say that Rory Marks' employee was the bully and the reason why your employee was arrested is because he was fighting in self-defense. When he outbid Rory's employee, Rory's employee punched him in the face and it turned into a big brawl. You blame Rory for giving his/her employee the direction to be as aggressive as possible to win the auction. It was vicious. Rory is barbaric, so s/he is probably guilty of murdering J.R.
 - You suppose now that J.R. is dead, the land in Boston will be auctioned once again – and you'll send your employee to win it. However, this time, it will be with bodyguards.
 - You left the ballroom about 3 minutes before the time the body was discovered. You didn't return to the ballroom until well after the body was discovered. You were speaking to the concierge about dinner reservations for tomorrow night in the hotel's lobby.
 - When Payton Clark returned to the ballroom, less than 2 minutes or so later, the victim exited.
 - You remember seeing [Name] leave the ballroom with [Name] and [Name]. You believe Skyler [Name] was at this party.
- PERSONAL CLUES
- You did have a strong suspicion that [Name] was involved in the murder.
 - You may have talked to [Name] about the murder.

FINAL SOLUTION ROUND THREE – READ FIRST

When it is your turn, say the following to the group:

It is true I stood to gain millions from the victim's death, for he was my cousin and our grandfather recently passed, leaving over 20 million from his estate. It is also true I have an enormous gambling debt and receiving my grandfather's entire estate will fix my situation...and then some. However, I didn't commit murder tonight, but thank you to whoever did!

And I have one more thing to say. Character G, I know you were blackmailing me. The cat's out of the bag and you're not receiving anything from me. I suppose I will be investigated for insider trading, but I'll have plenty of cash for a legal defense team.
