Host Instructions

GENERAL HOSTING: during the party, your job as the host is to make sure the rounds flow correctly. As the host, you may choose to play any character you wish. You will pass out the clue cards to the guests at the appropriate times. As the mystery progresses, check on your guests to see if they are discussing the clues and implementing tasks on their clue cards (some players may have tasks). Encourage them to mingle with the other players, and not to rush anything. It's all about gossiping and sharing secrets! They should speak to every other player at least once during each round. Your guests are playing a character role, so they should embrace their character's lack of integrity and motives. With that said, if you opt to do the optional money challenge, you can instruct the guests to hold back secrets for money (see the bonus activity instructions for more details).

The full instructions are in the purchased game

GAME STRUCTURE: the game is organized into four rounds and is structured as follows:

OPTIONAL PRE-GAME STARTER: these optional pre-game tasks are to be delivered to each guest before the party, or give them to the guests as they arrive. All pre-game materials are optional. They are intended to enhance the build up for the event. These tasks are not vital to solving the mystery. Also, encourage your guests to view the Your Mystery Party guest pre-game website to get them excited about your game (this is highly encouraged).

ROUND ONE: Deliver the round one clue card envelopes as your guests arrive. It is optional to serve cocktails for adults and appetizers.

ROUND TWO: Deliver the round two clue card envelopes. It is optional to break for dinner either before or after this round.

SOLUTION ROUND THREE: Deliver the round three solutions. It is optional to serve coffee/hot cocoa and dessert.

Don't host a party without some type of food/beverage offering - hungry guests are not happy guests.

Example Timeline

7:00 PM: Guests arrive. Take guest photos and serve refreshments. Have the invited guest list available for the guests to view as they trickle into the party. Once everybody has arrived, snap a group photo!

7:10 PM: The host goes over the guest instructions for the mystery game. It is optional to have each character stand up and introduce themselves to the group. You can play the game trailer video for an introduction.

7:20 PM: The round one clue cards are handed out, and the game begins. The guests mingle and discuss the clues on their clue cards. Motives will start to unfold during this round.

7:50 PM: An optional bonus game is played.

8:05 PM: An optional dinner is served. Snacks can be served throughout the party instead.

8:35 PM: The round two envelopes are handed out, and the guests mingle about with their pre-murder clues.

9:00 PM: The victim is revealed, and the investigation of the crime begins. The mystery investigation sheets are handed out, and the guests interrogate each other (using the post-murder clues). Each guest should interview every player in the game.

9:15 PM: The forensic report is revealed.

9:30 PM: The investigation sheets (guesses of whodunit) are turned in to the host. After the sheets are collected, the guests may take turns accusing who they believe did it.

9:45 PM: Dessert and coffee may be served at this time. The round three solutions are handed out to the guests. Each player presents their solution, and the murderer confesses at the end. Allow a few minutes for the guests to mingle at the end to discuss the mystery.

10:00 PM: Another optional bonus game may be played &/or host an optional awards ceremony!

To shorten the mystery party, omit the bonus games, don't stop for dinner, omit the accusation round, and don't host an awards ceremony. Also, you can shorten the game even further by only having the required players read their solutions (or even just the murderer). If you wish to extend the length of the party, add more bonus games!

OPTIONAL PRE-GAME STARTER CARDS cut the task strips out below and slip them into envelopes. Below on the pre-game task sheets, fill in your guests' preferred contact information (i.e. email, phone) so they will be able to contact each other. Important: if any of the optional players are not being played in your game, write 'disregard this task' in the contact information space. ✂

CHARACTER C

OPTIONAL - FOR SOME PRE-PARTY FUN, CONTACT THE FOLLOWING GUESTS IN THE WEEK LEADING UP TO THE PARTY:

Contact the guest playing Character S and say you are still working on the plans for your collaborative venture with her father- The Wilton Jonas Resort and Water Park. You've got a stubborn landowner you're dealing with, but are hopeful things will work out.

(Contact info : _____)

Contact the guest playing Character U and say you have a wart on your finger. He was highly recommended to you by someone you both know, Character L. Ask him if he can fit you in next week sometime, as you'd like to have it removed.

(Contact info : _____)

Respond to the guest playing Character T (if s/he contacts you first) with: Uh...no, don't do that. She was raised by mobsters. I wouldn't mess with her.

Each player will receive a pre-game task card in the purchased game. Names have been removed to minimize spoilers.

ROUND ONE CLUES – cut out, slip into envelopes and label.

Character N ROUND ONE

CLUES TO REVEAL DURING THIS ROUND

- Ask Character W about the argument she had at her little brother's soccer game.
- Character B is your sibling. He refuses to acknowledge you ever since he got famous as a professional wrestler. You don't care. You find professional wrestling to be idiotic and a waste of brain power.
- Ask Character Y about his/her recent projects.
- Ask Character O why she puts up with Character X's wrestling character parody of her - 'The Adopter.' It is not funny how he hrows baby dolls at opponents.
- Ask Character P what happened at the shopping mall the other day. You saw her walking through the mall while you were in the computer store. She looked like she was about to kill someone...not that it was 'that' different from the norm.

PERSONAL CLUES TO CONCEAL

- Your only sibling is Character B. Character B got famous and pretends you and the rest of the family (besides your mother) doesn't exist. Your very wealthy great, great grandfather just passed away (he was 115). Your mother asked you to tell Character B, and you 'forgot to mention it.' The reading of the will is next Tuesday. You're not sure how it works, but you are hoping that if Character B doesn't show up, s/he won't get his/her share of the inheritance. It's worth a shot, anyway. You heard that you and Character B may be the only ones in the will!

Each player will receive a round one card in the purchased game. Names and gender have been removed/changed to minimize spoilers

ROUND 2 CLUES cut out, slip into envelopes and label.

CHARACTER B ROUND TWO

PRE-MURDER CLUES:

- Tell Character W if her father doesn't give you those VIP tickets to the screening party of the Enchanted Gnome, the IRS audits will continue.
- Tell Character E that she never wants to feel the wrath of an auditor. You better get the promotion up for approval at the next board meeting of Widgets, Inc. You've worked extremely hard for it and won't let anything get in your way!
- Tell Character B that she might need to get her paperwork in order, as she should expect an IRS audit soon.

POST-MURDER EVIDENCE:

- It takes 15 seconds to take a brisk walk to the center of the room from the light switch on both the western and the eastern wall. The light switch was off for 30 seconds.
- There are two doorways in this party room. They're on the center of the north and south walls.
- Some people changed positions before and after the lights went off and came back on.
- You were standing by Character J before the lights went out. When the lights went off, you moved as far away from him as you could get. You don't trust someone like that in the dark.
- The murder weapon was on the buffet table earlier by the bread and butter. The fingerprint analysis should only be used to rule out suspects.
- The murderer will obviously lie. Pay attention to facts.

EACH PLAYER WILL HAVE A ROUND TWO CLUE CARD IN THE PURCHASED GAME.
