SYNOPSIS (THIS OUTLINES THE FLOW OF THE PARTY EVENTS).

An enchanting fairy mystery for 7-10 children ages 6-10 set in the magical location of Tinkerville. This game can be expanded to up to 20 guests if you make the characters 'twin fairies.'

Fairy dust is the heart of what makes things magical in the fairy town of Tinkerville but very few fairies are magical enough to make fairy dust and it takes a whole year to make a batch of it! Sparkles, the Tinkerville fairy dust maker, created the annual batch of fairy dust and placed it out on the Tinkerville Courtyard to dry. An hour later, she noticed that the fairy dust was missing! Sparkles instantly notified Mayor Fiona Feathers – the town of Tinkerville’s Mayor – who immediately called an emergency meeting of the town’s fairies. The fairies arrived at the Mayor’s office, munched on yummy drinks and snacks and created a beautiful new pair of fairy wings while they waited for the meeting to start. Then, the Mayor announced that Georgie the Garden Gnome, or Triple ‘G’ as he prefers to be called, had slipped a note for them under her door. He told the group that he knew what happened to the fairy dust, but that he wanted them to solve at least 6 of his 7 mysteries before he would tell them. Gnomes can be a tad mischievous at times! He explained that they didn’t have long before the fairy dust was gone forever. The fairies organized a search for Triple ‘G’s clues and worked together to solve the 7 mysteries. They took a few breaks during the investigation to eat a light but yummy dinner and play the ‘Movin’ the Gnomes Relay’, ‘Let’s Help Triple ‘G’ Build his Garden’, and the ‘What’s on my Head’ game. Then, all of the fairies turned in their best guesses of the 7 mysteries to the Mayor. The fairies kept their fingers crossed as the Mayor read their answers aloud to the group. Then, one by one, the fairies read the solutions to the 7 mysteries while they enjoyed cake and delicious hot chocolate! Triple ‘G’ was thrilled that the fairies did so wonderfully that he quickly explained what had happened to the Tinkerville fairy dust. The group had only minutes to find the fairy dust so they participated in an exciting hunt for the fairy dust. To everyone’s relief, the fairy dust was recovered and the town of Tinkerville was saved! Then, the fairies played a hilarious game of ‘A Fairy’s Life Charades’ and finished their projects from ‘Let’s Help Build Triple ‘G’s Garden. Overall, the fairies had a wonderful day!

This mystery is a light-hearted and entertaining mystery that allows the children to step into a different character while trying to solve the entertaining mysteries. The party can be a huge success as long as the guests relax and let the mystery unravel during each round.

The party pack (this document) needs to be printed in advance of the party. Cut out the clues and stuff them into envelopes labeled with the appropriate round and character for each round of the party. The Scavenger hunt clues also need to be cut out and put into sealed envelopes (the envelopes are optional). It is optimal to choose different colored envelopes for each round.
