

You are cordially invited to attend a mystery party...

Hosted by:

You will play the role of:

Date:

Time:

Scene of the Crime:

RSVP:

For more information, go to yourmysteryparty.com/mancy3

MEMBERS OF THE RIVER PEAK FORENSIC SCIENCE CLUB

MANCY CREW

President and Founder of the River Peak Forensic Club

In light of her exceptional sleuthing skills, Mancy Crew founded the River Peak High Forensic Science Club. The organization has grown to become a serious investigative group that's even aided the police on occasion! Full of ambition and no stranger to hard work, Mancy is the respected leader of the club.

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. A magnifying glass, notebook and a pen as optional props.

AMANDA CHRISTIE

Vice President of the River Peak Forensic Club

Amanda Christie is Mancy Crew's best friend. She's a talented athlete and a technology guru. From computers to smart devices, Amanda will get the job done. When she's not building computers or solving riddles, she spends her free time planning hilarious pranks on her friends and family.

Suggested Attire: athletic attire. A smart phone, post it notes and a pen as optional props.

SHERLEA HOLMES

Secretary of the River Peak Forensic Club

Originally hailing from the United Kingdom, Sherlea Holmes is the reigning champion of the National Mathematics League. Always seen in a Sherlock Holmes' style deerstalker cap, Sherlea is a genius when it comes to cracking codes.

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. A Sherlock Holmes deerstalker cap as an optional accessory.

JONI 'DOC' WATSON

Treasurer of the River Peak Forensic Club

Joni Watson goes by the name Doc since she's an aspiring physician. She volunteers at the urgent care clinic to get a jump on her medical training. Doc is Sherlea Holmes' best friend. She is the most fun-loving club member who speaks loudly, loves to dance, and is a whiz at putting together puzzles.

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. A lab coat and examination gloves as optional props.

ELLA QUEEN

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

The most popular girl at River Peak High is Ella Queen. An effective communicator and social networker, Ella knows everything about everyone in River Peak! If you need to know someone's secrets, Ella's your spy, as she has the brains, ability, and popularity to pull it off! To no surprise, she's also the cheerleading captain for the school's squad.

Suggested Attire: any cheerleading uniform or warm ups. Megaphone and pom poms as optional props.

SAMMY SPADE

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

The cheery Sammy Spade is a competitive skateboarder and aspiring rap artist. Academically, she's a chemistry mastermind and the National Academic League science champion. She loves to make up songs about the periodic table to make people laugh. Sometimes, she even takes over and teaches the freshman chemistry class for her teacher.

Suggested Attire: casual teen skateboarding inspired attire. Optional lab coat and fake microphone as an optional prop.

ADRIAN MONK

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

Is there a drama queen in the house? Yes, there is, and her name's Adrian Monk! She's the spunky editor of the River Peak High Newspaper. Adrian is in love with drama! Known as the school gossip, never tell her a secret unless you want everyone to know by dawn! She took an interest in handwriting analysis, and has created a database of handwriting samples from everyone at school.

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. Notepad, pen, magnifying glass and a digital camera as optional props.

PET COLUMBO

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

Pet Colombo is an aspiring forensic psychological profiler. She's getting so good at profiling- she can guess what you're thinking! Wild and hyperactive, this energy-hoarder is the most mechanically- inclined member of the club, as she's been working on cars in her father's garage since she was five.

Suggested Attire: trendy teen attire.

DOLLY SAYERS

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

Dolly Sayers is the most hard-working academic of the group. She is the top of the class at River Peak High. She sings instead of speaking normally when stressed, and is an animal lover who works part time as an animal groomer at River Peak Pet Depot.

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. A stack of educational books as optional props.

MARGO ELLINGHAM

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

The newest student to River Peak High is Margo Ellingham. She recently moved to River Peak from South Africa. Soon after her arrival, she landed a part time job at Shonac - a burger joint. A great debater and world traveler, this club member has done everything bigger, better, and more times than you have.

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. It is optional to wear a fast food uniform.

MISSY MARPELE

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

Originally from France, Missy Marpele is a budding fiber and tool mark specialist. She has great attention to detail – especially when working on cases. Missy has one vice, which is an undying love for chocolate! She is known to be a tad snooty and meticulous but is probably the most dependable member of the club.

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. Magnifying glass and bag of chocolates as optional props.

DANA SKULLY

Member of the River Peak Forensic Club

This cliché-talking Physics Club diva can work out the dynamics of any crime scene in seconds! She'll effortlessly figure out who was where and who went where while discussing alien life forms and worm holes the entire time!

Suggested Attire: casual teen attire. Any physics book or printed article about the universe, worm holes, etc. as optional props.