INVITED GUESTS:

ALLIE

Allie is a prim and proper young lady. In her free time, she loves to read books by the brook to her attentive and loveable cat named Dynamo. A chronic daydreamer, Allie cannot wait to grow up and often finds her imagination running to faraway, mysterious lands.

WHITE BUNNY

If you see a flash of white fur, you've probably spotted White Bunny hopping by! Notorious for nearly being late, this haughty bunny is impatient towards everyone except the Scarlet Queen! White Bunny works as a herald in the Palace Garden and constantly worries about breaking rules of Topsy-Turvy Land. This rabbit's quite fond of his/her head!

GOLIM THE CATERPILLAR

Golim the Caterpillar is a mysterious soul who lives on a giant toadstool in Topsy Turvy Land Woods. Only three-inches high, Golim doesn't take kindly to strangers and becomes enraged if a comment is made about his/her small size. However, this caterpillar is the wisest creature of the forest. The residents of Topsy-Turvy Land know where to go for answers.

CHESSER THE CAT

Chesser the Cat is known as the prankster of the Topsy-Turvy Land Woods. When speaking with Chesser, you'll never know if this cat's serious or playing a practical joke! Chesser lives with the Countess, but rumor has it that s/he is growing tired of the chef throwing pots everywhere.

SCARLET QUEEN

This foul-tempered monarch of Topsy-Turvy Land is feared by every creature. Without haste, she will declare a death sentence at the slightest wrongdoing! She declared a new rule in TopsyTurvy Land of sentence before verdict, so her criminal trials have become irrational and quite unreasonable. Some say the Scarlet King's intimidated by her just like everyone else.

CRAZY CAP MAKER

The Crazy Cap Maker is the eccentric hat maker in Topsy-Turvy Land. This hatter is known for giving fabulous tea parties and keeping everyone entertained with unsolvable riddles and crazy dancing! Crazy Cap Maker's loyalties lie with Allie, and the Silver Queen, and s/he will do anything to protect them.

SILVER QUEEN

The Silver Queen ruled Topsy-Turvy Land peacefully for the last 101 years. Recently, the heinous Scarlet Queen thieved her crown. The residents of Topsy-Turvy Land dream of the day when the Silver Queen will rule the land again, as she is a fair and honorable leader. She refuses to harm anyone!

SCARLET KING

The Scarlet King is bashful as compared to the tyrannical Scarlet Queen. While the Queen isn't looking, the king routinely frees creatures held for frivolous executions ordered by the Queen. However, the king seems to enjoy the Queen's ridiculous daily criminal trials and often asks strange questions of the witnesses. Some say the king does this out of boredom!

COUNTESS

The Countess of Topsy-Turvy Land is the Scarlet Queen's cousin and her least favorite person. She lives in a small palace on the edge of the woods with her nutty chef who throws pots and uses entirely too much cinnamon! The Countess is aggressive and doesn't interact with others properly. She's also quite volatile and emotionally unpredictable. Stay clear of the Countess if you know what's good for you!

CHEF

The chef works for the Countess in a small palace on the edge of Topsy-Turvy Land Woods. Chef throws anything s/he can grab during random outbursts about nothing! Chef has an obsession with cinnamon. Chef eats it, drinks it in tea, wears it, and even sprinkles it around the palace!

MEEDLE ME & MEEDLE MUM

Meedle Me and Meedle Mum are fun-loving twins that reside in the Topsy-Turvy Land Woods. They're mirror images of each other in every way and constantly finish each other's sentences! The twins are fond of playing games. They don't take life seriously and can't help but make odd movements with their bodies to entertain others.
